Your marketing packages

As the most important platform for the promotional products industry throughout Europe the PSI trade show brings together all important players in the industry. With targeted sponsoring or advertising solutions you can underline the relevance of your company and boost the success of your trade show appearance. Even more promising: combine several services in one campaign. We have put together attractive marketing packages for you to do just that.

Marketing package Basic

The marketing package Basic is automatically included in your exhibitor contract, unless you select a different marketing package.
